

Chapter 4 Documents

HDET	History Detail Table .....	4-2
HIST	History Header Table .....	4-4

HDET

History Detail Table

[illegible]

Purpose

The purpose of the History Detail Table is to provide the user with the ability to review the status change history for a given document and document type. History detail records are written by the system each time a status change occurs.

Screen

Characteristics

Inquire History Database.

Procedure

Cross-Reference

Chapter 2 History Database Inquiry, 1.1 Inquire History Detail Table.

Field Completion

Field	Size	Description
Date	8	Protected. Maintained by system. Current date.
Time	8	Protected. Maintained by system. Current time.
Term	8	Protected. Maintained by system. Terminal ID logged on to transaction.
Document Number	10	Unprotected. Key. If left blank the system will return with the first document number for the document type listed. If input the system will return the document number specified.
Document Title	30	Protected. Inferred interpretation of the document type from BTAB Table DT (Document Type).
Doc Type	3	Protected. The document type of the record.
Suffix	3	Unprotected. Key. The change number of the document if applicable.
Status	3	Protected. Key. The status code of the document at the time of the transaction.
Status Code Title	30	Protected. Inferred interpretation of the status code from the various status code tables.
User ID	4	Protected. The user ID of the person that affected the status code change.
Chg Date	10	Unprotected. Key. If left blank the system will return with the lowest status code for the oldest date. Format is CCYY MM DD.
Chg Time	8	Unprotected. Key. If left blank the system will return with the lowest status code for the oldest date and the lowest time.

HIST*History Header Table

ENTER FUNCTION: ..... TRANS: HIST

HISTORY HEADER TABLE

KEY IS DOCUMENT TYPE, DOCUMENT NUMBER AND SUFFIX

DATE:

TIME:

TERM:

TYPE ... :

NUMBER	SUFFIX	RELATED NO.	AGENCY	BUYER	NATURE OF PURCH.
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...
.....	...

Purpose

The purpose of the History Header Table is to provide the user with the ability to inquire history data related to purchasing activity transactions. The user can leaf to the HDET table for a history detail.

Screen*Characteristics

Inquire History Database.

Procedure*Cross-Reference

Chapter 2 History Database Inquiry, 1.2 Inquire History Header Table.

Field Completion

Field	Size	Description
Date	8	Protected. Maintained by system. Current date.
Time	8	Protected. Maintained by system. Current time.
Term	8	Protected. Maintained by system. Terminal ID logged on to transaction.
Type (Document)	3	Unprotected. Key. If left blank the system will return with the first document type in the database. If input the system will return with the document type specified. Must be a valid entry in BTAB Table DT (Document Type).
Document Type Title	30	Protected. Inferred interpretation of the document type from BTAB Table DT (Document Type).
Number (Document)	10	Unprotected. Key. If input the system will return with the document number specified. If left blank the system will return with the first document number in the system for the type specified.
Suffix	3	Unprotected. Key. The change number of the document if applicable.
Related No.	10	Protected. A related document number, if applicable.
Agency	6	Protected. The purchasing agency number associated with the document.
Buyer	3	Protected. The buyer code associated with the document.
Nature of Purch.	2	Protected. Indicates the type of purchase as described in BTAB Table NP (Nature Of Purchase).